

CUB SCOUT/SCOUT/VENTURE SCOUT/ROVER SCOUT UNIFORM

Overview

1. Youth Members, except Grasshopper Scouts, wear the Uniform as shown on the page on the right. The Basic Badges worn include: World Membership Badge, Hong Kong Emblem, and Region, District and Group Badges. Scouts also wear a Patrol Patch. In addition, they may use and wear other compliant Clothing Items, Insignia, Badges, Decorations and Awards.
2. Youth Members, except Grasshopper Scouts, wear short-sleeved Uniform Shirts. If the event organiser does not make any specific uniform arrangements, they may, depending on their physical constitution or weather conditions, choose to wear a Uniform Sweater, a jacket or a coat.
3. Group Scout Leaders can decide that the entire Scout Troop wear Uniform Trousers with black socks during the winter.
4. Venture Scouts and Rover Scouts may wear Ties when attending ceremonies and conference meetings, etc.
5. Female Venture Scouts and female Rover Scouts may wear Uniform Trousers when attending physically active events.
6. If a Venture Scout is appointed as an Instructor by their own Scout Group, such Venture Scout may choose to wear either their Venture Scout Uniform or the Scout Group's Adult Uniform while performing such Instructor role. If a Venture Scout is appointed as an Instructor by another Scout Group, they wear that Scout Group's Adult Uniform while performing such role.
7. If a Rover Scout is appointed as an Instructor or a Leader, they wear the Rover Scout Uniform when attending Rover Scout activities, but wear the Adult Uniform while performing the Instructor/Leader role.
8. Before their investiture, Youth Members, except Grasshopper Scouts, may wear a complete uniform except the World Membership Badge, headgear, Group scarf and patrol patch (for Scouts). Buttoning up the shirt's collar is not necessary.
