

USE OF THE HANDBOOK

1. The Uniform Handbook (“the Handbook”) is the official handbook published by Scout Association of Hong Kong (“the Association”) for Scout members. It sets out the Association’s guidance and specifications on appearance and uniform, etc.
2. Copyright in all content of the Handbook (including all text and illustrations) belongs solely to the Association and is protected by law. When Scout units or Scout members use any content of the Handbook, such Scout unit or Scout member must acknowledge the source and must not make any alterations.
3. The Handbook is uploaded to the website of the Association (<http://www.scout.org.hk/uniformhandbook>).
4. When the Association Headquarters amends the content of the Handbook, it will issue a circular and update the website.
5. If any Scout member has any questions about or comments on the content of the Handbook, such Scout member should address such questions or comments to the Assistant Chief Scout Executive (Operations) or to the Regional Scout Executive of the Region to which such Scout member belongs.
