Fig. 1: 2 to 3 Medals

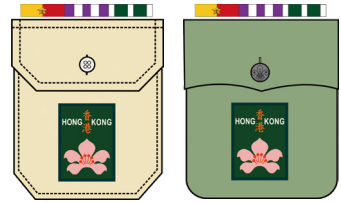

Fig. 2: 4 or more Medals

1. If two or three medals and medallions are worn, as per specifications on Page 187, a metal brooch is used to carry them, either swing mounted or court mounted. (Fig. 1)
2. If four or more medals and medallions are worn, a metal brooch is used to carry the overlapping medals and medallions with the senior one lying on the top. (Fig. 2)
3. The ribands of smaller-sized medals or medallions may be extended to make their bottom edges in line with others.

WEARING TWO OR MORE RIBBON BARS

1. As per specifications on Page 190, a metal brooch is used to carry them.

2. A maximum of three Ribbon Bars may be worn in a single row ^(note). Multiple rows may also be used. The top row should be at the centre of the other rows.

Note: Rows of four Ribbon Bars may be continued to use until they have been replaced.
